

31.08.2015

Dear INRAG members,

as announced I would like to invite you to our INRAG meeting on Friday September 25th

The meeting will be held at the Institute for Safety and Risk Sciences (Borkowskigasse 4, Baracke 4, 1190 Vienna).

The proposed topics as of 28.08.2015 are:

1. Future structure

- Lessons learnt from the NURIS Conference
- Establishing an International foundation for financial support of independent nuclear expertise
- Next chair

2. Future actions of INRAG

- Defining projects to produce public reports
- Preparing a scientific public workshop next spring on the IAEA Fukushima report
- Finalizing the NURIS Publication

3. Topical Issues

- Risk of Uncontrollable Re-Criticality due to a Steam Generator Tube Rupture
 - Report (Helmut Mayer, Dr. Müllner)
 - INRAG Statement to be issued
- Report on ongoing EPR regulatory issues
- Report on Hinkley Point subsidies
- Messages of the IAEA Comprehensive Report of May 14th on the Fukushima accident (presentation by ISR)
- Health effects of radiation (report on the UK COMARE study)

There are a lot of other topics that would be worth of discussing. We will decide on the agenda at the beginning of the meeting. Every topic to be discussed should principally be prepared by a short and focused presentation.
